FAQs

What is flatfair?

flatfair is the simple, safe and affordable alternative to tenancy deposits. Instead of an expensive deposit, tenants simply pay flatfair a small one-off membership fee and cover the cost of any established charges at the end of their tenancy. flatfair helps tenants and landlords settle end of tenancy charges quickly, fairly and securely, whilst protecting everyone through Independent Dispute Resolution. flatfair achieves faster lettings, a reduction in disputes and greater recovery of residual losses.

What are the benefits?

Without an expensive upfront deposit, flatfair gives landlords a competitive advantage; your properties become affordable and attractive to more tenants, reducing voids. We facilitate fast resolution of charges and disputes with your tenants - in fact, you may even sell us unpaid established charges up to a total value of 12 weeks' rent (*though never more than 6 weeks' rent arrears). If worse comes to worst, you can appoint flatfair to recover any additional sums at no cost.

How much does it cost?

For agents and landlords, it's free! For tenants, we charge a small one-off fee equal to the value of 1 week's rent (excl. VAT), replacing the need for an expensive tenancy deposit.

Is flatfair safe?

What if my tenants have already paid a deposit?

Easy. Just get your tenants to sign up as flatfair members. Once they've completed payment, the property is certified and you're safe to release their deposit.

When does flatfair expire?
